

Arthur L. Carter Journalism Institute Presents:
Works by the News & Documentary Class of 2022

NYU NEWS DOC FILM FESTIVAL 2023

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3rd | 6-8:30 pm

6:00PM

Opening
Welcome by NewsDoc
Director Marcia Rock

Introduction by Alum
Mathieu Faure

6:25PM

My Inheritance

by Stephanie Lemesianou

Reconciling with her country's war-torn past, a second generation refugee from Cyprus finds the courage to cross the checkpoint with her father to the occupied territories. It's been 48 years since he left.

7:00PM

Darjeeling Dreams

by Mehar Gujral

India's oldest tea industry is in danger of dying out. Passionate tea-makers reveal the existential threats facing the Darjeeling tea industry, and their dreams for its survival.

7:35PM

No Memories Lost

by Jiale Hu

As a nurse aide for 10 years, Jenny Li has witnessed the last breaths of many patients at her nursing home in Brooklyn. But the memory she couldn't have, is of her husband Tony when COVID claimed his life in 2020. Not allowed to be with him and the distress

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 4th | 1-8 p.m.

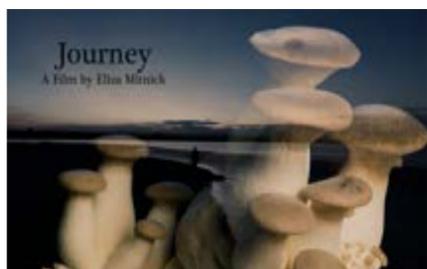

1:00PM

So Sunflowers Grow

by Ann Gilmore

Two Ukrainian refugee families fled the war. While one family struggles with the feeling of paralysis, the other searches to redefine the meaning of home in the United States.

1:35PM

Journey

by Eliza Mitnick

Jimmy Nguyen is a psychedelic healing guide who leads clients on ceremonial trips using mushrooms. Currently in medical trials, the mushroom allows people to confront their truest nature and their deepest demons. Jimmy found his own healing this way, confronting intergenerational trauma and abuse from his Vietnamese refugee father.

2:10PM

Yawash Yawash

by Clara Charrin

In a beach resort in northern Albania, a former Afghan army general awaits promised refuge in America. As his stay extends indefinitely, days adapting and befriending locals are clouded with fears of life in purgatory.

2:50PM

Coffee Break

3:10PM

Wings of Dust

by Giorgio Ghiotto

The story of an independent journalist, representing his Peruvian indigenous community, in the fight against the damaging effects of globalisation through aggressive mineral mining on their lands.

3:50PM

A Man Aman

by Ziru Wang

An ambitious Chinese Artist Aman moved with his family to New York. Shortly after settling in, subtle discomforts emerge from his family and the city, and then he passed out, changing everything.

4:40PM

Duet

by Lyuwei Chen

Having forged his own path out of desperation, Bright Sheng describes his experience in becoming a musician during the Cultural Revolution in China. Being a musician was the only way he could embrace his destiny, but it is a path that his talented 11 year old daughter isn't sure she wants herself.

5:20PM

Interrogated

by Nicole Guillen

After making false confessions and spending over 65 years combined behind bars, Jeffrey Deskovic and David McCallum join the fight to expose the pitfalls of the Reid Technique, the most popular law enforcement interrogation tactic. Alongside expert witnesses, criminal defense attorneys, and a first of its kind performance that shows how police interrogations can go wrong.

A SINCERE THANK YOU TO OUR FACULTY AND STAFF:

Marcia Rock | Jason Samuels | Jane Stone | Jason Maloney | Ross Barkan | Mary Manhardt | Shimon Dotan | Adrian Mihai | Aviva Slesin | Joe Peyronin | James Berry

Join Us Online: <https://nyu.zoom.us/j/94881113877>