

NYU NEWS DOC FILM FESTIVAL 2022

6:10PM

ANA IS HERE

by Adam Santovac

Serbia, a conservative Balkan country with no LGBT rights, is led by an openly gay Prime Minister. (40 min)

6:55PM

SARZHAL: HALF LIVES AND WHOLE TRUTHS

by Guldana Talgat

A daughter takes an intimate look at a major historical event in Kazakhstan – the Semey Test Site, the most nuked place on Earth, where a father fought to end bomb testing. (30 min)

All individuals attending the film festival must pass the NYU COVID Screener

FRIDAY, MAY 13th 6PM - 9PM
SATURDAY, MAY 14th 1PM - 6:30PM
Q&A WITH DIRECTOR AFTER EACH FILM
RECEPTION FOLLOWING FINAL FILM SATURDAY
19 University Place Room 102

JOIN US ON ZOOM

<https://nyu.zoom.us/j/95276234063>

7:30PM

THE BREEDING SHED

by Celina Torrealba

The traditionally male-dominated world of thoroughbred racing is rapidly changing as a new breed of professional women shatter barriers within the farms that nurture these equine athletes. (27 min)

8:00PM

OUT OF BREATH

by Laura Loguercio

A small Italian town has been fighting against asbestos contamination for over a century. With a new trial on its way, will people who already lost so much finally get the resolution they deserve? (23 min)

SATURDAY, MAY 14th

1:10PM

IN BETWEEN

by Andrea Acosta

Two citizens in Colombia step in to help care for Venezuelan migrants streaming into the country. They struggle to get support for their efforts while fighting anti-immigrant fears. (25 min)

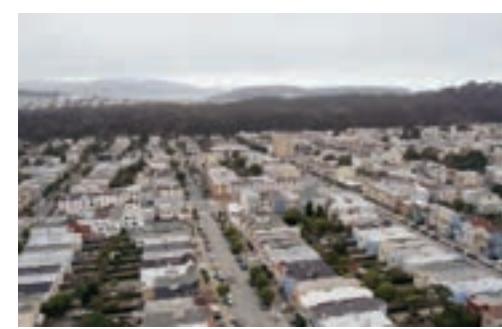

1:40PM

CREATING SPACE

by Julia Eckley

With only three lesbian bars left in New York City, activists Sarah Hollonquist, Loretta Chung, and Kristin Dausch work to create new queer community spaces in innovative ways. (22 min)

2:15PM

BITS OF SUMMER

by YUNBO WU

A Chinese filmmaker, Yunbo, lost his grandparents in the pandemic and rediscovers the meaning of home in the United States. (30 min)

2:45PM

ACROSS THE STREET

by Julie Levy

University Park in south Los Angeles is home to working class and primarily Latinx families. It is also the site of a 21-well oil facility that is just next door to where people live and play. (23 min)

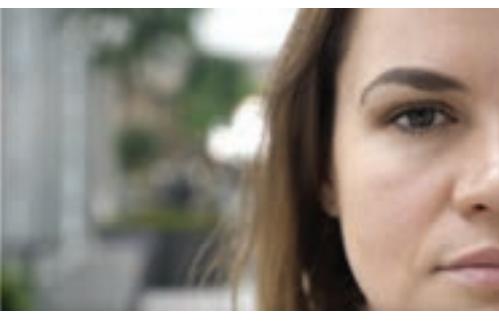

3:15PM

CHILDREN OF SIN

by Soukaina Alaoui El Hassani

After being disowned by her family, Siham navigates the murky waters of shame and rejection as an unwed mother in Morocco. She fights to reconnect with family and gain legal rights for her daughter. (25 min)

4:05PM

LONG WAY HOME

by Serge Kharytonau

After the disputed 2020 presidential elections in Belarus, a group of new exiles led by the winning candidate use their network to help Ukrainians fight the war with Russia. (24 min)

4:35PM

ZEHAVA

by Tamar Baruch

Zehava, a 22-year-old Palestinian trans woman asks me to take her to the West Bank before she starts transitioning, to say goodbye to her grandmother, who is unaware of her gender identity. Two months later, Zehava is dead, the police think by suicide. (25 min)

5:05PM

WE'RE GOING TO MAKE IT

by Sydney Bertun

A transfemme glitch artist and a twitter famous investor are trying to make a living with NFTs. (33 min)

5:40PM

FOUND

by Shuhao Tse

Tang's son was stolen when the child was 3. 12 years later the Chinese police found him but that joy was trapped by a new reality. (45 min)

A SINCERE THANK YOU TO OUR FACULTY AND STAFF:

Marcia Rock | Jason Samuels | Jane Stone | Jason Maloney | Ross Barkan | Netaya Anbar-Dotan | France Costrel | Shimon Dotan | Adrian Mihai | Michael Shade | Aviva Slesin | Joe Peyronin | James Barry