ARThUR L. CArTER JOURNALISM INSTITUTE PRESENTS: WORKS BY THE NEWS & DOCUMENTARY CLASS OF 2015

NYU NEWS & DOC FILM FESTIVAL 2016
Q&A WITH DIRECTORS AFTER EACH FILM RECEPTION FOLLOWING FINAL FILM
19 University Place, Room 102 (Corner 8th St. & University Pl.)
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6 12:30 PM

12:30 PM
THE PRISON AND THE WRITER
Dir. Alberto Zamora
Costa Rica's best-selling writer still struggles after fifty years to reverse his conviction and find legitimacy in the eyes of the public.

1:10 PM
PEOPLE’S HOSPITAL OF CHINA
Dir. Siyi Chen
Chinese doctors and patients are turned into strangers or even enemies as they're both caught in an imperfect healthcare system.

1:55 PM
WELCOME TO MALAYSIA
Dir. Rahmah Pauzi
Muftuz, Ghani and Raed are from different countries. They all migrated to Malaysia, attracted by the promise of a “progressive Muslim country.” But finding home in the multicultural Malaysia is not so easy.

2:30 PM
OPEN SEASON
Dir. Kristopher Brant
The ecosystems of the Atlantic are being threatened by the largest invasion in history. It’s up to Lad Akins and his army of spearfishers to take the ocean back from the poisonous Lionfish. The world’s greatest predator is getting back on top of the food chain.

INTERMISSION 15 MINS

3:15 PM
HOMOWIVES
Dir. Runze Yu
Xiaonian is trying to get a divorce, Wang is stuck in her marriage because of her two kids and Delan stopped her marriage after six months. They all married gay men without knowing it. These women are three of the 16,000,000 Chinese women deceived into marriage by gay men who were trying to please their families by having children.

4:00 PM
BOYS WILL BE BOYS
Dir. Anna Perczak
Football is a game built on domination and violence. But when troubling incidences of domestic abuse and sexual assault among players make headlines, die-hard female fans must grapple with their love for a game that may not love them back. A sexual assault survivor named Katherine, former athletes and fans work to treat the problem at its root: locker rooms full of swagger but lacking in respect.

4:35 PM
YANGDIDI (Taken by the Wind)
Dir. Kelsey Doyle
Even after a super typhoon severely damaged the outer islands of Micronesia, the soon-to-be-chief, “Junior,” is determined to stay and maintain their way of life. Seeking out the help of trailblazing marine biologist, Nicole Crane, and her science team’s cutting edge approach of combining science with tradition, the outer islanders just might be able to save their reefs and reunite the atoll.

5:10 PM
DAI’S GARDEN
Dir. Ruohan Xu
A Chinese slow-food movement pioneer, Dai Jianjun, is dedicated to bringing back traditional Chinese culture in an era of rapid urbanization and industrialization. He runs an expensive farm-to-table restaurant in the city of Hangzhou, and uses his profits to build a green utopia in a remote village 260 miles, where migrant workers can stay home.

A SINCERE THANK YOU TO OUR FACULTY
Marcia Rock
Program Director
Jason Samuels
Cora Daniels
Shimon Dotan
Kirsten Johnson
Jason Maloney
Adrian Mihai
Joe Peyronnin
Michael Shade
David Spungen
Jane Stone